

Welcome to The Parenting Planner!

Use this page to track the implementation of your parenting plan on a weekly basis. You can then present this page to your lawyer to quickly understand your family's history with respect to custody and visitation.

Sample Page: Weekly Chart

The weekly chart helps you keep track of where you are in your custody plan, who has custody on any given day, and any notable incidents. Print off a fresh page for each week as it coincides with your court-ordered parenting plan. Keep these pages organized in order so that your lawyer can review them easily to track how your parenting plan has been working for you.
